

The Republican.

THURSDAY, APRIL 3d, 1879.

CITY AND COUNTY.

John Dial, the grocery man, started for Ohio, on Monday.

Oliver Hume and family left this city, yesterday, for Minneapolis, Minn.

There will be a donation party at the M. E. Church Tuesday evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

The Easter Service, will be explained in a lecture at the Episcopal Church next Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Rev. T. C. Stringer supplied the place of Elder Cissel at the Methodist quarterly meeting, in this city, last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Speirs, of Warsaw, and Perkins, of South Bend, preached at St. Thomas' Church on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, respectively.

Snyder & Snyder have completed the foundation for their new elevator near the I. P. & C. depot, and will be ready for business in about a month.

J. N. Hess, of Argos, will start with his family, to Fort Smith, Arkansas, next Monday. He will keep books for Junk & Huff, lumber dealers of that city.

"Honesty," the last of the series of sermons on "The Four Limbs of the Social Body," is the subject of the Rev. J. J. Fawcett's discourse for next Sunday evening, April 6th.

The men who exhibit the Strasburg clock are gentlemen, and our newspaper friends in other counties, need not be afraid that they will try to beat them out of the money, for any work that they may order.

Wong Chin Foo, was here Saturday night but did not lecture because the attendance was too small. He draws large houses in other cities and towns, and his lecture is said to be well worth the price of admission.

Mrs. Millikan, wife of the editor of the Crown Point Cosmos, has been very sick, but the last number of the Cosmos says she is slowly improving. Her many friends in this city will be glad to hear that there is a probability of her recovery.

The Warsaw Republican says: "We have the information from a reliable source, that there is a party of four men making their headquarters at Plymouth, who are running a three-card monte game on the Pittsburgh railroad, between this city and Valparaiso."

Three young fellows named Fiefor, Platt and Gigg got on a "bum," in West township, a few evenings ago, broke up some houses, and destroyed and carried off some property. Platt now takes his meals at Astley's hotel, and the others probably will before long.

Charles Richardson, late engrossing clerk of the Indiana Senate, returned to Plymouth Tuesday. He does not look as though his association with that distinguished body had hurt him, and as he is a sensible young man, we may yet live to see him vote the Republican ticket.

We learn that during the heavy rain storm, Friday evening, the brick barn of William Sears, in Bourbon, was struck by lightning, killing four horses and one cow. Three men who were in the barn, though considerably stunned, escaped unharmed. The barn and contents were burned. The total loss is about $2,000.

Our enterprising townsman, W. J. Adams, has invented and patented a new chisel for chipping plows, which the Commissioner of Patents says is the "best chisel ever invented." The Adams Chilled Plow will not now be surpassed by any chilled plow in the world, and we predict an immense sale in every part of the country. If you want a plow, buy the Adams.

A family in the most abject poverty were in this city Tuesday morning, trying to get to Indianapolis. The woman and three little children were almost naked. The man said if they could get to Indianapolis they would be all right. Trustee Palmer gave them their breakfast and a pass to Rochester, they got a few dimes and quarters from the citizens and went their way. They came from Illinois.

Dr. J. M. Confor has returned from Indianapolis. He called at our sanctum Tuesday, and looks as well as a Democratic law-maker could expect to look. He again tenders his professional services to the people of the county, and can be found at the rooms he formerly occupied over Poe & Chapman's drug store. It is not necessary for us to say that he will give his attention to business, for the people all know him.

W. C. Edwards, defaulting Trustee of Center township, and Harvey Atkinson, defaulting Trustee of Walnut township, were tried and acquitted last week. As the law now is, the people have to prove that an officer is guilty of intentional fraud before they can convict him of felony, and the prosecution failed to convince the jury that Edwards and Atkinson did wrong intentionally. Hence the verdict.

Our readers all know Platt McDonald and Rev. H. V. Reed, and will consequently be interested in the following item which we clip from the Leadville Daily Reveille:

Mr. O. S. Bell, a well known gentleman, has succeeded in selling the Dyer mine, which has been negotiating for some time. The sale is just completed to Reed, McDonald & Clark, of Chicago, for $100,000. The mine belonged to Lieutenant Governor Tabor and George L. Henderson, and is situated at the head of Lower gulch, in unmined vein in line, carrying largely of sulphurates. It is one of the most permanent mines in the Leadville district, and one of the best producers of high grade ores in the camp.

Some Inwood boys got on a bender, Saturday night, and after breaking in a few doors and windows, fired a pistol at or near Paul Williams, who returned the fire with a shotgun, peppering three of them pretty badly. This caused considerable excitement in the village, and a row being feared, officers Armstrong and Milner went down, Monday evening, but the boys had "skedaddled." All is now quiet.

Quite a large gathering of the intimate friends and neighbors of Mrs. Geo. W. Hoover very pleasantly surprised her last Saturday evening, on the occasion of her 39th birthday. A pleasant and happy time was enjoyed.

The hostess was presented with several very fine and useful presents in token of the respect in which she is held by her many friends, who wish her many happy birthdays to come, and hope that He who ruleth the universe may generously "smear" the bread of life with the cream of this world's goods in her "case," as well as that of her genial lord and happy family.

Payee Personal.

The first man on our list this week is W. E. Bailey. He pays for his paper as promptly as he brings teachers to time who fail to do their duty. Then comes J. W. Shafer, of LaPaz, and leaves a good load of wood which was just the same as money to us. J. D. Staffey, of Walnut, one of the energetic workers of that flourishing village, dropped in next, left an order for some job work, some money for O. A. Sherland, who goes from Walnut to Donelson, gave us some valuable information and left us well pleased. Wm. Dinsmore, of Maxenkuckee, happened to see by the label on his paper, that his time had expired, sends the money right along to pay for another year, just as a Maxenkuckee man would do you know. The next man that paid is the first white man that set permanently in Marshall county. And while the staunch pioneer gave a reason for the faith that he had, that even Indiana would be redeemed and disenthralled from Democratic rule in 1880, his amiable daughter and Mrs. Search watched or fast job press turning out bills at the rate of twenty a minute. Did everybody possess the intelligence and honesty of Robert Shroeder, our country would be in no danger. Smith Pomeroy is almost as old a settler and is as well known throughout the county as Mr. Shroeder. His subscription never expires. He always pays in advance, just as he did Saturday. In the darkest hours the Pomeroy's have always stood by the REPUBLICAN and the Republican party. Wm. Tichner has just removed from Wolf Creek to Plymouth, and while he did not pay for a year in advance he came in and left with us just as much money as he could spare, and we felt that he was just as good a subscriber as the wealthiest man in the county. Miss Clara Becker, of Walnut township pays two dollars and enrols as a new subscriber. She is one of the intelligent ladies who know the value of a good paper. Isaac Rhodes, the efficient Constable of Argos, came in Monday and set the figures a year ahead. He was followed by Valentine Nye, of Tynes City, who just laid down a twenty dollar bill and told us to take our pay out of that. Nye is a good one. Scott Foss, of Maxenkuckee, was the next one to pay. He will go next week to Valparaiso to attend Normal school, and the REPUBLICAN will go there too until he returns. Scott will do his part to make our county better. Charlie Andrews, one of the best Republicans and best men of this vicinity comes next. Charlie resides near Dixon lake, and raises the finest peaches in the United States, but we suppose they will be invaluable this year.

No man, boy or child ever fails to get a perfect fit in a suit of clothes if he goes to Simon Becker's.

You ought to call on Barney Ryder if you want to see the windows of a boot and shoe shop decorated in the finest style of art. Barney will treat you well and give you any work in his line at the lowest prices.

The reason that local news is scarce is that everybody is wondering what Becker & Wolf will do with their immense stock of goods, and then they rush right in and buy and go away so pleased that they keep the whole town in a good humor.

Changed Again.

"Times and seasons change," as does also the business firm in room No. 9, of Hoham's block. E. K. Barnhill, who has been connected with the house from its beginning, either as a member of the firm or as a clerk, has now become sole proprietor, by the purchase of S. D. Taber's interest, and will continue the Grocery business in the same old place. All accounts due the old firm are payable to the undersigned, who will be pleased with a settlement at an early convenience; also all bills and accounts owed by the firm of Barnhill & Taber will be settled by the undersigned. With many thanks for the liberal patronage of old customers, a continuance of the same is solicited, and with the assistance of a polite and obliging brother, H. W. Barnhill, as clerk, it is hoped that all will find it a pleasure to trade with.

Money to Loan.

In amounts from $300 to $3,000 on approved real estate security, by H. Corbin & Co.

BOURBON AND BREMEN WOODS.

BY WOODS BOT.

Whitaker Bros. have dissolved partnership.

Too much mud and water to commence spring work yet.

B. Tripp buried his youngest child March 27th.

Mrs. Ellen Fisher, Margaret and Willis Myles, and Frank Tripp and wife, are on the sick list.

As B. Tripp was crossing the river on horseback, a few days since, carrying his three-year-old child, the horse became entangled in some drift wood and in the struggle the child was thrown into the water, but was rescued unharmed.

ARGOS.

BY EN KYE EX.

Weather changeable.

Jacob Barnes is still very low with paralysis.

John Turner starts for Connorsville this week to work on a farm.

Charlie Whitmore was in Argos last Monday and sold M. Williams a piano.

Jasper Lowery is on the sick list, and will not be able to teach his term of school out.

Mrs. Hickman, of Argos, who has been visiting in Rochester and Indianapolis, has returned.

The enumeration of Argos, taken this year by A. W. Boggs, shows 210 school children, entire population 660.

The Argos select schools began last Monday with quite a good showing up for a prosperous summer school.

Jas. E. Quiver has been appointed Superintendent of the Argos M. E. Sunday school, Vice, L. W. McClure, resigned.

L. W. McClure goes to the beautiful Maxenkuckee to work at the carpenter trade, and his family goes with him to keep house for him and his hands.

Argos N. C. T. U. had a meeting in three volumes last Sunday. The first and second volumes were good enough, but a little tedious. Now my views in regard to temperance meetings are short speeches and right to the point, and lively with songs interspersed and a rousing call for signers.

DOVELSON.

BY DONALD.

Schools closed last Friday.

Some of our farmers have commenced plowing.

J. W. Bolenbough was in town on Saturday.

The health of the people is comparatively good.

Rev. A. Fuller preached here Saturday night and Sunday.

Our town will be represented at the Valparaiso normal this summer.

Miss Bridget Ryan, of Plymouth, was here visiting her parents, last week.

O. N. Sherland has returned from Walnut, where he has been during the winter.

Several ladies from Plymouth were in attendance at the closing exercises of school.

Mr. Dill, the purchaser of the John Ruff farm, moved here from Elkhart county, last week.

The circulation of too much fire water caused a first class row here last Saturday night. Fortunately it ended without any shingles being used.

Dr. R. B. Short, of Bourbon, shed the light of his smiling countenance upon us at our sanctum one day last. Come again Dr., you are a welcome visitor.

Mr. John McGarry was brought home from Chicago Monday morning in a very critical condition, his physicians having given up all hope of his recovery.

Some of our citizens have got the Kansas fever so badly that they are hardly able to be around. We will report their names when they become dangerously ill.

J. C. Short has returned home from Illinois, where he has been trapping during the winter, on the island at the junction of the Sangamon and Illinois rivers. He showed us some very fine otter and rat fur; also some curious pieces of pottery, supposed to have been used by the natives of that country.

TYNER CITY.

OCCASIONAL.

Esquire Neff has bought a fine bull. Marcellus Smith has moved to Inwood. The hoop-pole business has about played out.

The doctors report very few cases of sickness.

It is reported that Jesse Williams will move to Tennessee.

Miss Charlotte Sherwood is visiting friends at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Dr. McCormick has gone to LaGrange to visit a sick daughter.

Competent judges say that stock sold very low at Henry Miller's sale.

S. J. Gray is making preparations to establish a stove factory in Tyner.

A young man named Soule was arrested last Friday, on a charge of grand larceny. He was taken to Plymouth and lodged in jail.

Cal. Sininger and Dell Knott did not surprise worth a cent, last Wednesday night, when the young folks of Tyner made a raid on them.

The good people of Tyner and vicinity got up a surprise for Mrs. Buffin, last Monday, by collecting material and putting up a small barn, to replace the one she had burned a few days ago.

Married, March 26th, at the residence of Mrs. Jarrell, by Rev. G. R. Streeter, II, L. Jarrell and Ida Harris. At the same time and place, Manfred Drollinger and Amanda Jarrell. May they live long and die happy.

There was general rejoicing in Tyner last week, when it became known that Huckleberry Queen, Sorrel Top, and the rest of the trash that had been inhabiting the "den," had packed their traps and left the town. It is hoped that they may never return.

Wednesday night of last week, while Garrett Jarrell and family were absent from home, thieves succeeded in getting away with a lot of corn and beans. Mr. Jarrell is satisfied with the thieves are, and if they make another raid on him, they may find it necessary to call in the aid of a doctor to extract a few shot, as one of them did some time ago.

INWOOD.

BY EQUINOX.

Blasingham is building a barn upon the place he traded to Hull.

Mr. Stephen Jackson, our shoemaker, is finishing his wife's house.

Mr. Timanous, who was injured by a stump puller falling upon his hip, is improving, and hopes are now entertained of his recovery.

F. M. Blasingham has traded his house and lots to David Hull, for his property, and we suppose Dave will now turn granger.

The new officers of our N. C. T. U. are as follows: President, Richard Bright; Vice-President, John Blasingham; Secretary, Fred Bell; Treasurer, Charles Shreve.

For the last two or three months there has been a band of rascals in this vicinity who have, during that time, attacked five houses, breaking open doors, throwing stones at the house, smashing windows, &c. Last Saturday night, this band made a raid on the house occupied by Dr. Sell and broke open the door. From there they went to the house occupied by Lowrey Shirley, and broke in his door. The next one attacked was the one occupied by Mr. Stiver, when Paul Williams interfered to protect Stiver and his house. Williams ordered them to leave, at the same time warning them he had a double barrel shot gun and would shoot if they did not disperse. They moved away about 18 rods, when one of the rascals fired a revolver at Williams, the ball striking a tree about two feet above his head. Williams returned the fire with the shot gun, and succeeded in drawing plenty of blood.

On Monday it was ascertained that two young men were wounded, but have fled the country. I suppress names at the present on account of relatives. Shot gun argument, loaded with buck shot, is the quickest way to put a stop to such lawlessness, and the citizens are fully prepared for any further demonstrations.

(Carried over from last week.)

More weddings in the breeze.

Winter seems loth to leave.

Matrimony market seems lively at the present.

Mr. Rodgers is raising a subscription school for a summer's term.

I had the pleasure of a call from Frank Sundaun of the Democrat. Come again Frank.

Mr. Charles Hinkle started the 25th for Colorado in search of health. A very affecting parting scene was witnessed between Mr. C. Hinkle and his mother when he took the train.

Married, March 20th, at the residence of Mr. Oliver Silvery, Mr. Ed Jordan to Mrs. Edith M. Silvery. May their lives be one unbroken round of happiness, is the wish of Equinox.

A very sad accident occurred last Monday, at the new mill being erected 2 1/2 miles south of here; it seems that Mr. Charles Tymann, with the help of some of his men, was endeavoring to put a stump puller in position, and the big rod breaking, the large block fell, striking Mr. Tymann in the back, at the same time another of the timbers fell, striking him on the shoulders, doubling him backward over the block. It is feared his back is broken, and his recovery at the present time considered doubtful. His wife and also his partner and family physician were telegraphed for at Bucyrus, Ohio, and are now here in attendance on him. Dr. Bell, of this place, and also Dr. Reynolds, of Plymouth, are doing all they can to alleviate his suffering.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of Barnhill & Taber have dissolved by mutual consent. The business in the future will be conducted by E. K. Barnhill, the remaining member of the firm, who will collect accounts due the old firm and pay all bills and accounts owed by them.

Neighborhood Notes.

The South Bend Tribune says a shower of worms fell in that city, Saturday morning.

Rev. Jacob Studebaker died at the residence of Jacob Ullery, near Goshen, Sunday, March 23d, aged 86 years.

The Valparaiso Messenger returns thanks because it is not in a Congressional district, with LaPorte and St. Joseph counties.

Henry Frink, aged about seventeen, was killed by lightning at Goshen, last Friday evening while crossing the Market street bridge with a team.

Ralph Haga and Courtie Winters, two Goshen boys, got into a quarrel Saturday, about a stick, and Haga stabbed Winters in the left lung with a pocket knife inflicting a dangerous wound.

The Knox Ledger says the health of Starke county is good, and the Knox boys can yell louder, laugh stronger, and go to school less than the boys of any other town in the State.

An incendiary attempted to burn a millinery store in Kokomo, Saturday morning, but by rapid work on the part of the fire department the building was saved, though the goods were almost entirely destroyed.

The Valparaiso Vidette says, two dead heads persuaded a farmer of that vicinity, named Andrew Nichols, to go to Chicago, where they enticed him into a gambling den and fleeced him out of two hundred dollars.

The Huntington News says that the temperance workers of that city, not being able to induce the ministers to attend their meetings, propose to hold an occasional meeting at the residence of each of the divines.

The LaPorte Argus says a few of the first settlers of LaPorte county met at Westville, on the 15th of March, to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the settlement of that county by white people. The first settlers were the Benedicts and Clyburns.

Charles P. Jacobs, an old settler, died at his residence, in Goshen, Wednesday of last week, from an attack of paralysis of the brain. He passed his eighty-third birthday on Sunday, the 22d inst. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Goshen, Friday forenoon.

The Peru Democrat says that Charles Long, who died recently at his home in Miami county, assured all his friends months ago that he would die in March. A few weeks previous to his death he received a promissory note from one of his neighbors for some article that he sold, and holding it up said, "this paper is intended to pay my funeral expenses." His predictions proved to be true in every particular, the proceeds of the note being used to pay his funeral expenses.

ALBERT CRESSNER, Agent.

Clevery Concocted.

Dr. Price's celebrated Cream Baking Powder is extensively imitated. The Genuine may be known from the imitations by the words "Dr. Price," "Steel and Price," and the Hand and Cornucopia on the label. These are the trade marks. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is not sold in bulk.

Economic Aspect.

The economic aspect is a strong point in favor of Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts, Vanilla, Orange, Rose, Almond, Lemon, etc. They are three times the strength of the ordinary extracts; the bottles hold nearly twice as much as those sold for the same size.

In the First Rank.

The just reputation of Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes places them in the first rank of the very best handkerchief extracts that have ever been made. Their odor is truly rich, fresh and flowery. Dr. Price has spent much time and study in perfecting these perfumes.

Perfection.

To be always a man of rule and duty, to follow with fidelity to the end the way of honor, to renew each day, without weariness and weakness, the laboring struggle of a soul wrestling with itself, to draw from the sacrifice of the eve the force necessary to accomplish that of the morrow, to attach one good work to another like the links of a chain, of which each one is joined to that which precedes it, and supports that which follows it, to accomplish in silence this slow and prolonged immolation of the senses to the spirit, of reason of faith, of interest to duty, of passion to law, of self-will to authority, of our own welfare to the general good, of one's whole existence to God—this is true perfection of life.

MARRIED.

March 26th 1879 by Samuel Moore Esq. Eli Will and Miss Mary Spranger.

Take Warning.

Directly around each bronchial tube we enter the lungs, are about 20,000 minute air cells—in the entire lungs about 600,000,000. A slight cold producing bronchial inflammation, a gathering of phlegm and a slight difficulty in breathing quickly involves the 20,000 air cells and finally if not remedied the whole six hundred million become clogged with pus which must be healed or life will soon terminate. The world's great lung remedy, I. R. King's New Discovery for Consumption, really heals and permanently cures every worst case of lung diseases, Coughs, Colds, tickling in the throat, Asthma, Hoarseness and difficulty of breathing in the shortest time possible. Trial bottles free. For sale by L. Tanner also G. Blain & Co. Plymouth.
